

Utilising the Search Functions

There are 3 ways ways to search the web site.

- 1) Utilise the search bar if you already know the part number or model you are looking for eg. DL380.
- 2) Utilise the filter if you know the specification you are looking for but not particular about which vendor.
- 3) Utilise the faceted search engine and then refining by using the filters.
- 4) To drill down further you can then use the filtering for all methods at any time throughout the search.

The screenshot shows the Ingram Micro website interface. A red circle highlights the search bar and navigation menu. The search bar contains the text "Products" and "for DL380". The navigation menu includes "Products", "Vendors", "Services & Support", "News & Events", "Contact Us", and "Account". Below the search bar is a "Vendor Spotlight" banner for "HP March Deals" featuring various HP products. Below the banner is a "Recent Viewing History" section with three product listings:

Product Name	SKU	Your Price	Your Price w/ Tax	Retail Price	Stock Status

Utilise the faceted search engine and then refine using the filters.

The screenshot shows the Ingram Micro website interface. At the top, it says "INGRAM MICRO Partner Smart" and "You are on the New Zealand site in English using New Zealand dollars (NZD)". There are navigation tabs for Products, Vendors, Services & Support, News & Events, Contact Us, and My Account. A search bar is visible with a "GO" button. Below the search bar is a "Vendors" list with an alpha index (A-Z) and a "See all vendors" link. A red circle highlights the "ACER" vendor and the "Product Categories" list next to it, which includes: Accessories & Components (8), Computer Systems (59), Displays (9), Presentation Devices (14), Services & Warranties (2), Software (2), and Storage Devices (1). Below the vendor list, there are product cards for a Samsung LCD and an Acer Veriton. On the right side, there is a "MY DASHBOARD" section with a welcome message, a basket summary, and various utility links. Below the dashboard are promotional banners for Techbyte, an Ingram Micro Clearance Sale, and a "Need help?" button.

Search by vendor by using the alpha index. This also shows you what categories they have products in.

The screenshot shows the Ingram Micro website interface. On the left, a sidebar contains filter categories: Vendors (listing HP, ACER, LENOVO, APC, IBM, LASER, CISCO, KINGSTON, MOTOROLA, and ASUS), Status (listing In Stock, New Product, Discontinued, and Clearance), and Tech Specs (listing Brand Name, Product Type, Operating System, Processor Manufacturer, and Processor Speed). The main content area is titled "Search Results" and shows "311 Products". It includes sorting options (Sort results by: Relevance) and pagination (Per page: 15). Three product listings are visible:

- Product 1: KINGSTON 128GB SSD V G2 2.5 SATA II DRV NB Kit. Your Price: $432.67, Your Price w/ Tax: $486.75. Retail Price: $576.89, Retail Price w/Tax: $649.00. Out of Stock.
- Product 2: KINGSTON 2GB Kit DDR3-1600 Non-ECC DIMM CL7 KVR. Your Price: $101.93, Your Price w/ Tax: $114.67. Retail Price: $145.61, Retail Price w/Tax: $163.81. Out of Stock(ETA (3/3/2010)).
- Product 3: HP 3000 Pro MT E3300 2GB 160GB DVDRW Win7 P. Your Price: $849.00, Your Price w/ Tax: $955.13. Retail Price: $960.00, Retail Price w/Tax: $1,080.00. In Stock(104).

The bottom of the page shows a "Recent Viewing History" section and an "Interr" logo.

Utilise the filters if you know the specification you are looking for but not particular about which vendor or if you wish to search by what is in stock, what is on promotion, clearance or is a new product.
